

SHOT ANSWERS CHALLENGE OF A WATCHMAN

Prowler Kills Guardian Who Stopped Him on Weehawken Heights.

SLAYER GETS AWAY.

Escapes Before Residents Aroused by Shot Reach
His Dying Victim.

Henry Schmidt, a watchman on Weehawken Heights, N. J., was shot and killed early to-day by a man whom he encountered prowling around the yard in the rear of the residence of Mr.
Wee-hawken, No. 22 Boulevard Loop, Highwood Park.

The murderer escaped and there is no due to his identity beyond the meagre description furnished by Schmidt before he died.

The section patrolled by Schmidt is given over to this residence. There have been numerous burglaries along the Wee-hawken Palisades of late and the watchman was particularly vigilant.

It was on the night when he saw a man sneaking along in the shadows of the Boulevard Loop. The man, discovered by the watchman, called out to him, and Schmidt followed him in.

"What are you doing here?" asked the watchman.

"None of your business," replied the stranger, who had drawn a revolver.

Schmidt made a dash for the man, but was stopped by a bullet that penetrated his abdomen. The shot aroused several residents of the neighborhood, but when they reached the fatal spot his assailant had disappeared.

The wounded watchman was carried to the residence of J. H. W. Schmidt, where he was treated by Dr. Fendler, until an ambulance arrived from North Hudson Hospital. Schmidt died soon after the hospital was reached.

He had been in the house long enough to give a description of his assailant to Roundman Mitchell. The murderer, according to Schmidt's description, is about 5 feet 7 inches tall, dark of complexion and of medium build. He wore a dark overcoat and a black derby hat.
Schmidt lived at No. 2 Ridgely place, Wee-hawken Heights. He was widely known and popular, and the authorities are making every effort toward the hard task of finding his slayer.

SHIP GOES DOWN IN SEA COLLISION; ALL ABOARD SAVED

Mystery of Wreckage on Jersey Coast Cleared by Report of Captain.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 2.—Capt. Delany, of the steamer Porto Rico, which arrived here to-day from New York, reported passing the schooner Elizabeth Palmer at 4 P. M. yesterday, ten miles southeast of Hog Island, the last-named vessel reporting that she had been in collision off Barnegat last Saturday night with a vessel whose name Capt.
Delany could not understand.

The unknown vessel was sunk and the Palmer took off the crew and has them on board.

Despatches from different points in New Jersey during the last few days told of wreckage that had floated ashore indicating the loss of a ship, the identity of which was not known.

The report of Captain Palmer at 4 P.
M. to-day. The schooner's bowsprit was damaged.

NO HORSE STRONG ENOUGH TO CARRY COL. MARSHALL.

So 350-Pound Army Officer Will Probably Be Retired for Not Making the Riding Test.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—President Theodore Roosevelt and Secretary Taft will this evening devote considerable time to the consideration of the question as to what course shall be followed regarding army officers who failed to "make good" in the recent horseback riding test prescribed by special order of the President. It is known that several engineer officers in charge of river and harbor and other public works necessarily will be placed on the retired list should the report of the riding board be followed.

Among this number is Col. Marshall, in charge of the Ambrose Channel improvement in New York, who failed to ride because no horse could be found strong enough to carry him. Col.
Marshall weighs 350 pounds and the advice of army physicians was that if he mounted a horse it probably would fall and result in the injury of the officer.

Clearance of Men's Fine Suits and Overcoats

SEASON'S greeting in the form of DOLLARS SAVED on fine Suits and Overcoats involved in a clearance sale. Most of them are from our own regular stocks. The exceptions are regular stock quality—sacrificed groups from manufacturers whose products measure up to our high standard.

Suits That Were Priced Up To $34.50 High-grade, hand-tailored Suits, in various models, fashioned of pure wool fabrics in various shades; some in medium weight materials good for early spring wear. Early buyers will find all sizes in the collection.

Overcoats That Were Priced Up To $24.50 Including box and semi-fitting models, 14 to 52 inches long; in fancy mixtures, black and Oxford overcoatings, with linings of pure silk.
Farmer's satin, serge and flannel; collars with lapels hand-relief; sleeves, plain or with fancy cuffs.

Overcoats That Were Priced Up To $48.50 Distinctly high class garments, fashioned of imported and domestic materials, in black, Oxford and fancy grays and browns; lined with silk and satin and interlined with wool flannel; every coat hand-tailored throughout.

Typical Macy Values in Men's Full Dress Suits and Tuxedos.

Full Dress Suits, of fine quality English worsted, lined with pure dye silk and faced with gros-grain silk; garments hand-tailored

In White Sale Economies

A Happy New Year for Thousands of Women THIS annual white sale gathers force daily, as word of its splendid economies spreads and more women learn that NO MACY WHITE SALE OF OTHER YEARS OFFERED BETTER VALUES.

In many instances the BEST values of other years are BETTERED materially, not alone in Undergarments but in the allied lines involved.

Greatest interest centres in the stock of Undergarments—the main display on the second floor and overflow displays on the main floor and basement.

If you had the skill and the time and the inclination to fashion such garments as are offered in this sale—garments as well made and as daintily trimmed—you could not hope to produce them for anything like the low prices prevailing.

Best way and fairest way is to compare Macy White Sale values with other white sale offerings.
We court such comparisons—aid you in every possible way to make them. Sale stocks, independent of the very low-priced garments in the Underprice Basement, include:

Night Gowns at 49c, 69c, 89c, 99c to $43.24 Chemises at 49c, 69c, 79c, 89c to $16.74 Corset Covers at 19c, 24c, 29c, 39c to $14.24 Drawers at 19c, 29c, 39c, 49c to $19.49 Undershirts at 49c, 69c, 79c, 89c to $85.49

A most attractive feature of this sale is the display of French Hand-Made Undergarments of which the following values are representative:— Chemises, of nainsook, hand-embroidered and finished with eyelets and ribbon.

Drawers, of nainsook, finished with hand-embroidered ruffle and lace edge.
Night Gowns, of nainsook, hand-embroidered and finished with eyelets and ribbon.

Apart from the White Sale Array of Muslin, Cambric and Nainsook Undergarments on the second floor, there is a remarkably interesting spread of Waists, Petticoats, Kimonos; Misses', Infants' and Children's Apparel

Such stocks are characterized by an underpricing as noteworthy as characterizes the Undermuslins.
